

A Tribute To Rabbi Moshe Yanofsky zt"l, the Beloved Principal of Machon Bais
Yaakov

We are mourning the loss of Rabbi Moshe Yanofsky zt"l, a gadol b'yisroel.
His outstanding character and maasim tovim, we wish to retell.

Rabbi Yanofsky's zt"l chesed for the talmidos, he did inspire.
Reaching out, doing and giving, he would not tire.

Every chesed moment, R' Moshe sought to accommodate and to please.
Discreetly and humbly every opportunity, he did seize.

He was a devoted husband, father, grandfather and a wonderful brother.
The mitzvah of kibud Av V'em, he fulfilled, like no other.

As a baal kishron with outstanding abilities, Rabbi Yanofsky zt"l was ahead of his time.

An innovator of a faculty pension and a planner of inspiring Shabbatons, endeavors that were prime.

Helping the talmidos to achieve and redding shidduchim, R' Moshe was like by ALL.

Boundless chassodim to the tzibor, we can recall.

R'Moshe's aahavas yisroel and his hasmada in learning, we can elaborate.
The beautiful simchos and significant events, we can relate.

With a winning smile and a pleasant demeanor, R'Moshe was always sincere.
To every "precious" talmidah, he showed concern and care.

Rabbi Yanofsky zt"l encouraged the school plays, since achdus and talents were revealed.

Drama, music, art and choreography, skills of the talmidos should not be concealed.

Indeed, Rabbi Yanofsky's reputation and accomplishments will live on to continuity.

May he be a Melitz Yoshar for his family and for the community.

A Caring Principal

As told by a former student

At one of the high school graduations, Rabbi Yanofsky zt”l spoke warmly. He assured the students that he will think of them and was hoping for their successes. He ended by saying: “I hope to see you, since you are the “pupils” of my eyes.
